SECURITY DEPOSIT TO BE PAID BY CONSUMERS TO THE DISTRIBUTION LICENSEE FOR THE ENERGY SUPPLIED AND FOR PROVIDING OF ELECTRIC LINE/ELECTRICAL PLANT/ELECTRIC METER

INTRODUCTION

Section 47 of the Electricity Act 2003, deals with the power of the Licensee to require security from consumers towards amounts due to him in respect of the electricity supplied or towards the cost of providing any electric line / electric plant or electric meter for supply of electricity pursuant to Section 43 of the Act. The section also provides that the Licensee is entitled to refuse to give supply or provide the line / plant / meter to the applicant as long as the applicant fails to give such security and where the security already given becomes invalid or insufficient, the Licensee can discontinue the supply of electricity if the consumer fails to provide reasonable security within 30 days after the service of a notice to this effect by the Licensee for the payment of all monies which may become due to the Licensee in respect of supplying electricity, etc. The Act has made an express provision for payment of interest on the security amount at Bank Rate or a higher rate as may be specified by the concerned State Commission. The Licensee is not entitled to require security from a person receiving supply through a pre-payment meter.

A draft Regulation consistent with the above provisions of the Act was published in the A.P.Gazette on 10-12-03 inviting comments / suggestions from interested parties. A press release was also issued on the same day about the publication of the draft Regulation inviting suggestions / comments from interested parties by 31-12-03.

Some of the salient features of the draft Regulation are:

- Payment of Security Deposit by way of cash / DD for the energy supplied / to be supplied.
Security Deposit amount shall be two months’ charges in case of monthly billing and 3 months charges’ for bi-monthly billing.

Annual review will be done and additional Security Deposit will be demanded in case of shortfall. Refund will be made in case of excess.

Initial Security Deposit is specified in terms of flat rate per kW/kVA/HP for the sake of simplicity in the interest of consumers.

The Licensee has to pay interest at Bank Rate (RBI rate) and penal interest at twice this rate for delay in making annual adjustment in bills.

Licensee can refuse / disconnect supply for non-payment of Security Deposit.

Security for providing electric line / plant / meter.

The Commission has examined the comments and suggestions received and made suitable changes in the draft Regulation, wherever necessary.

4 Amended vide Regulation No. 02 of 2019 with effect from 16-02-2019
(b) If the existing Security Deposit of a consumer is found to be in excess by more than 10% of the required security deposit, refund of the excess security deposit shall be made by the Licensee by adjustment of the then outstanding dues from the consumer to the Licensee or any amount becoming due from the consumer to the Licensee immediately thereafter.

(c) Where the consumer is required to pay Additional Security Deposit, the Licensee shall issue to the Consumer a 30 days' advance notice specifying the amount payable with supporting calculations.

(3) Surcharge for belated payment of additional security deposit

(a) The consumers shall pay the additional security deposit within thirty days from the date of service of the demand notice issued by the licensee.

(b) If there is any delay in payment, the consumer shall pay surcharge thereon at 18% per annum or at such rates as may be fixed by the Commission from time to time, without prejudice to the Licensee’s right to disconnect supply of electricity, as per this Regulation.

(4) Disconnection for non-payment of security deposit for the electricity supplied

In the case where Additional Security Deposit is demanded by the licensee in terms of clause 6, and the consumer does not make payment, the supply to the consumer shall be liable for disconnection, without any further notice.

7. Interest on Security Deposit payable by the Licensee:

(1) The licensee shall pay interest on security deposit of a consumer, at the Bank Rate notified by Reserve Bank of India provided that the Commission may specify a higher rate of interest from time to time by notification in Official Gazette.

(2) The interest accruing to the credit of the consumer shall be adjusted annually against the amounts outstanding from the consumer to the Licensee as on 1st May of every year and the amounts becoming due from the consumer to the Licensee immediately thereafter.

(3) The Licensee shall duly show the amounts becoming due to the consumer towards interest on the security deposit in the bills raised on the consumer.

(4) The Licensee shall pay interest at twice the rate specified under sub-clause (1) above for the delay in making the adjustments for interest on security deposit.

8. Special provision for seasonal industries:

(1) In the case of industries declared by a general or special order of Commission as seasonal, the adequacy of the security deposit shall be reviewed based on the consumption during the seasonal period of the preceding year and such additional security deposit as required, may be demanded by the Licensee by duly giving thirty (30) days' notice before the commencement of seasonal period.

(2) It shall be ensured that by the commencement of seasonal period, the security deposit equivalent to 2 (two) months’ charges during season is available for the seasonal supply.

(3) At the end of the season, a review of Security Deposit shall be made again with reference to the consumption during off-season period of the preceding year and the security deposit in excess of two (2) months’ “off-season” consumption charges shall be refunded by adjustment against the amounts outstanding from the consumer to the Licensee and the amounts becoming due from the consumer to the Licensee immediately thereafter.

9. Refund of Security Deposit:

Where an agreement for supply of electricity is terminated as per the Terms and Conditions of supply, the Licensee shall be required to refund the security deposit if any, after making adjustments for the amounts outstanding from the consumer to the Licensee, within one month of the effective date of termination of the agreement:

Provided that if such refund is delayed beyond the period of one month as specified above, the Licensee shall pay interest on such deposit at twice the rate applicable on such effective date of termination of the agreement.

10. (Deleted)

Miscellaneous

11. Power to remove difficulties:

(1) In case of any difficulty in giving effect to any of the provisions of this Regulation, the Commission may do or undertake things, or by general or special order, direct the Licensee to take suitable action, not being inconsistent with the provisions of Electricity Act, 2003, which appears to the Commission to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

(2) The Licensee may make an application to the Commission and seek suitable orders to remove any difficulties that may arise in implementation of this Regulation.

12. Issue of orders and practice directions:

Subject to the provisions of the Electricity Act, 2003 and this Regulation, the Commission may, from time to time, issue orders and practice directions with regard to the implementation of this Regulation and procedures to be followed for such implementation and matters incidental or ancillary thereto.

13. Power to amend:

The Commission may, at any time add vary, alter, modify or amend any provisions of this Regulation.
