COMMISSION

Consumer Grievances Redressal Forum, Vidyut Ombudsman and Consumer Assistance

Regulation, 2016
(Regulation No.3 of 2016)

(Published in Andhra Pradesh Gazette Part-I Extraordinary on 16.02.2016)

Preamble

Whereas Section 42 of the Electricity Act, 2003 deals with the duties of the Distribution Licensees and open Access and sub-sections(5),(6),(7) and (8) therein deal with the establishment of a Forum for redressal of grievances of the consumers and Ombudsman, an authority to hear the representations against non-redressal of grievances by the Forum. These facilities provided to the consumers are without prejudice to the rights which the consumers may have otherwise in Law;

Whereas the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory commission (hereinafter referred to as “the Commission”) notified the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission (Establishment of Forum and Vidyut Ombudsman for redressal of grievances of the consumers) Regulation 2004 (1 of 2004) in Andhra Pradesh Extraordinary Gazette dated 6th February 2004;

Whereas the Commission notified the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission (Appointment of Vidyut Ombudsman and Terms & Conditions of Service) Regulation, 2007(2 of 2007) in Andhra Pradesh Extraordinary Gazette dated 3rd July 2007;

Whereas Govt. of India, in exercise of powers conferred by Section 176 of the Electricity Act, 2003 notified the Electricity Rules, 2005

vide GSR 379(E) dated 8th June 2005 and Electricity (Amendment) Rules, 2006 vide GSR 667 (E) dated 26th October 2006, containing, inter-alia, Rule 7 regarding Consumer Redressal Forum and Ombudsman;

Whereas the Commission further notified the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission (Establishment of Forum and Vidyut Ombudsman for redressal of grievances of consumers) (First Amendment) Regulation, 2007 in Andhra Pradesh Extraordinary Gazette dated 1st October 2007;

Whereas the present Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission has been constituted for the State of Andhra Pradesh in terms of Section 92 read with the Twelfth Schedule of the Andhra Pradesh Reorganization Act, 2014 (Central Act 6 of 2014);

Whereas all the Regulations made by the erstwhile Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission are adapted in relation to the State of Andhra Pradesh under the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission (Adaptation) Regulation, 2014 (4 of 2014);

Whereas the Forum for redressal of grievances of the consumers and the Vidyut Ombudsman in the State of Andhra Pradesh are continuing to function under such adapted Regulations;

Whereas during the course of public hearings held on tariff filings for FY 2015-16 and also otherwise, a number of critical comments/views/suggestions are received from the public and the stakeholders indicating the imperative need for strengthening and improving the manner of redressal of grievances of consumers;

Accordingly, the Commission, guided by the model Regulations framed by the Forum of Regulators to the extent they suit and answer the needs and requirements of the consumers and the electricity industry in the State of Andhra Pradesh and keeping in view the feedback from all the Stakeholders and other State Electricity Regulatory Commissions, prepared and published a draft Regulation governing the establishment and functioning of the Consumer Grievances Redressal Forum, Vidyut Ombudsman and Consumer Assistance in the State of Andhra Pradesh in its website on 23-12-2015, invited further comments/views/suggestions from interested persons/stakeholders and conducted public hearings on 23-01-2016 and 30-01-2016.

Having due regard to the views/comments/suggestions received and in exercise of the powers conferred on it by clauses (r) and (s) of Sub Section (2) of Section 181 read with sub sections (5) to (8) of Section 42 of the Electricity Act, 2003 (Central Act 36 of 2003), the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Reform Act,1998 (State Act 30 of 1998) and Rule 7 of the Electricity Rules,2005 and all other powers enabling it in this behalf, the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission hereby makes the following Regulation providing for establishment and functioning of the Consumer Grievances Redressal Forums, the Vidyut Ombudsman and Consumer Assistance and for all matters incidental and ancillary thereto:-

  - iii. is re-presented without rectifying the defects for the correction of which it was returned or beyond the time specified in the endorsement of return:

Provided that no complaint shall be rejected unless the Complainant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

10.3 If the complaint is considered to be in order, the Secretary shall obtain the orders of the Forum for admission of the same for hearing.

11. Issue and Service of Notices

- 11.1 The Forum shall fix a date for appearance of the respondent(s) and issue notices to both parties for appearance on that day and the notice to the respondent(s) shall be accompanied by a copy of the complaint and copies of enclosed documents, if any.
- 11.2 The Forum may, on the request of the complainant, permit the complainant to effect service of such notice on the respondent(s) by delivering or tendering to the respondent(s) personally and the complainant shall provide proof of such personal service to the Forum.
- 11.3 The Forum may cause the service of such notices on both parties in the manner prescribed by Section 171 of the Act or through special messenger and obtaining signed acknowledgement or by fax or by e-mail.
- 11.4 Where the Forum is of the opinion that the adjudication of the complaint is likely to have an impact on the rights and interests of other consumers or the Electricity Industry, it may direct the Licensees to place the complaint along with the enclosed documents, if any, on the official website of the Licensee, also intimating the date of hearing.

12. Procedure for hearing

- 12.1 On appearance before the Forum, the respondent (s) shall file the response (s), if any, to the complaint within seven (7) days from the date of appearance or before the expiry of such further time which may be granted by the Forum from time to time, subject to a maximum of thirty (30) days.

12.2 If the respondent (s) has no objection for the relief claimed in the complaint or does not file any response (s), the Forum shall proceed to hear and determine the complaint by passing appropriate orders forthwith on merits on the material available on record.

12.3 If the complaint is contested, the Forum may proceed to give a reasonable opportunity to both parties to produce such oral and documentary evidence they may desire to produce and determine the complaint on merits on the pleadings and evidence available on record.

12.4 If the Forum considers it necessary for a satisfactory decision on the complaint, the Forum may direct either party to produce any documents or information in its possession or under its control or direct a personal inspection by the Forum or a competent person on the subject at the expense of either party as the Forum may direct and take into consideration such documents or information or report of such inspection:

Provided that if the information or documents are withheld by a party or such inspection is resisted or not assisted by a party, the Forum may draw an adverse inference against such party.

12.5 The Forum may, in appropriate cases, take recourse to conciliation or mediation or arbitration or any other method of alternative dispute resolution as it may deem fit and appropriate in the circumstances of the case before inquiring into the matter on merits.

12.6 The Forum may determine from stage to stage during the inquiry or in the final order, the manner in which and by whom the costs and expenses of the proceedings or any step therein have to be borne.

- 12.7 Subject to the specific provisions of this Regulation, the Forum shall be guided by the principles of justice, equity and good conscience and may regulate its own procedure accordingly.
- 12.8 When, on the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, if any party or his authorized agent or representative does not appear when the matter is called for hearing, the Forum may, in its discretion, either dismiss the complaint for default when the complainant or the person authorized on his behalf is absent or proceed ex-parte to hear and decide the complaint.
- 12.9 Where a complaint is dismissed for default or decided ex-parte, the person aggrieved may file an application within thirty (30) days from the date of such dismissal or being proceeded ex-parte, as the case may be, for recall of the order passed, and the Forum may recall the order on such terms as it thinks fit, if the Forum is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the non-appearance when the petition was called for hearing.
- 12.10 The complainant or the respondent (s) may appear before the Forum either in person or through any other person duly authorised by him including an Advocate.

13. Orders of the Forum

- 13.1 On conclusion of the inquiry, the Forum shall pass reasoned orders on the complaint and the decision of the Forum shall be by a majority of the Members who heard both parties and in the event of equality of votes, the Chairperson or in his absence the person presiding, shall exercise a second or casting vote.

- 13.2 The Forum shall pass an order of dismissal of the complaint, if the decision does not uphold the complaint and the Forum shall grant an appropriate relief(s) as per law, if the complaint is upheld in full or in part and such relief(s) shall be specific and clear.

Provided that where any complaint is dismissed or the relief granted is only in part, the Forum shall inform the complainant about his right to make a representation to the Vidyut Ombudsman.

- 13.3 The orders of the Forum on any complaint shall be passed ordinarily within sixty(60) days of the admission of the complaint by the Forum and the Forum shall state the reasons for any pendency beyond such period in its quarterly report to the Commission.

- 13.4 The Forum may, at any time, since the admission of the complaint till the final orders are passed, make such interlocutory orders or issue such interim directions pending final orders on the complaint as it may consider necessary to prevent the ends of justice from being defeated:

Provided that except where it appears that the object of making such interlocutory orders or issuing such interim directions would be defeated by delay, no such interlocutory order shall be made or interim directions issued unless the opposite party has been given an opportunity of being heard.

- 13.5 The Chairperson and the Members of the Forum shall sign on all original orders, decisions and proceedings of the Forum and all the copies of such orders, decisions and proceedings issued or communicated by the Forum shall be certified under the signature of the Secretary.
- 13.6 All final orders or other executable orders of the Forum shall be communicated to the parties to the complaint and the person responsible for executing or obeying such orders within three(3) days from the date of such orders.
- 13.7 Unless the Forum specifies in its orders the time within which the orders shall be executed or implemented, the Licensee shall comply with such orders within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of receipt of the orders under intimation to the Forum and the Forum may, at the request of the licensee, extend the time for such compliance upto a maximum period of one (1) month from the date of the order, for reasons to be recorded in writing.
- 13.8 Non-compliance with the orders of the Forum within the time granted or extended shall be deemed to be non-compliance with and contravention of this Regulation within the meaning of Sections 142 and 146 of the Act.
- 13.9 The Forum shall communicate to the Chairman and Managing Director of the Licensee about the non-compliance with the orders of the Forum within the time granted or extended and the Forum shall report such non-compliance to the Commission within thirty (30) days from the expiry of the period so granted or extended for execution or implementation of the orders.

- 13.10 On receipt of such report from the Forum, the Commission may take appropriate action, as the facts and circumstances of the case may require and justify for ensuring compliance with the orders of the Forum, including action under Sections 142 and 146 of the Act.

- 16.3 The Vidyut Ombudsman may hold his sittings or hearings at his office or at any other place within his territorial jurisdiction as the exigencies of hearing of the representation(s) may require.
- 16.4 The Vidyut Ombudsman shall be the Drawing and Disbursing officer and head of his office with general power of superintendence and control over his office and the Commission shall be the Head of Department for the office(s) of Vidyut Ombudsman.
- 16.5 The Commission shall provide the necessary infrastructural and human resource facilities for the efficient functioning of the Vidyut Ombudsman:
- Provided that the office of the Vidyut Ombudsman shall have a minimum establishment of one Secretary of the rank of Deputy Director in the Commission or an officer of equivalent rank of the Licensee, two Clerk cum Computer Operators and Two Office Subordinates.*
- Provided further that such Clerk-cum-Computer Operators or Office Subordinates may be either regular employees of the Commission or the Licensee appointed on deputation or those appointed on contract or through outsourcing in accordance with the administrative convenience of the Commission.*
- 16.6 The Secretary shall assist the Vidyut Ombudsman in discharge of his functions and shall receive all representations under proper acknowledgement.

16.7 The name, location, postal and e-mail address and office telephone and fax numbers of the Vidyut Ombudsman shall be displayed prominently on the websites of the Commission and the Licensees and at all the offices of the Licensees.

17. Reporting requirements

17.1 The Vidyut Ombudsman shall submit a quarterly report in the Format as per Annexure-IV on the settlement of representations to the Commission with a copy to the Licensee within fifteen (15) days from the end of a quarter.

17.2 The Vidyut Ombudsman shall submit to the Commission and the State Government with a copy to the Licensee(s), a half-yearly report giving details of the nature of the grievances of the consumers dealt by the Vidyut Ombudsman, the response of the Licensees in the redressal of the grievances and the opinion of the Vidyut Ombudsman on the Licensee's compliance of the Standards of Performance as specified by the Commission under Section 57 of the Act. Such report should be submitted before 31st January and 31st July of each year as the case may be.

17.3 The Vidyut Ombudsman shall also furnish an annual report on the activities of the Vidyut Ombudsman during the financial year to the Commission with copies to the State Government and the Licensee(s) before the end of April of each year.

18. Presentation of Representation

18.1 The complainant or a person duly authorized by him in this behalf may submit his representation in writing accompanied by a copy of the order of the Forum and other necessary supporting documents, if any, either in person or through post, e-mail or Fax to the office of the Vidyut Ombudsman having territorial jurisdiction.

18.2 In case of submission of a representation in person, an acknowledgement shall be issued immediately.

In case of receipt of a representation by post, e-mail or Fax, an acknowledgement shall be dispatched latest by next working day.

18.3 Any representation in writing may be submitted either in the format specified in Annexure: II or at least contain the information required in the format as far as possible.

19. Scrutiny and Admission of Representation

19.1 The Secretary in the office of the Vidyut Ombudsman may, on scrutiny of a representation received by him, return the same to rectify any defects or to bring the representation in conformity with the provisions of the Act or the Reform Act or the Rules or the Regulations or the practice directions or the orders of the Commission, specifying the time within which the representation may be re-presented to the office of the Vidyut Ombudsman.

19.2 A representation may be filed before the Vidyut Ombudsman against the order of the Forum within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of the order of the Forum.

Provided that the Vidyut Ombudsman may entertain a representation after the expiry of the period of 30 days, if he is satisfied that there was a sufficient cause for not filing it within such period, upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as the Vidyut Ombudsman thinks fit.

19.3 The Vidyut Ombudsman may reject the representation at any stage under the following circumstances:

- a) in cases where proceedings in respect of the same matter and between the same Complainant and the Licensee are pending before any court, tribunal, arbitrator or any other authority, or a decree or award or a final order has already been passed by any such court, tribunal, arbitrator or authority:
- b) in cases which fall under Sections 126, 127, 135 to 139 and 152 of the Act:
- c) in cases where the representation
  - i) does not disclose a cause of action:
  - ii) appears ex-facie to be barred by any law : or
  - iii) is re-presented without rectifying the defects for the correction of which it was returned or beyond the time specified in the endorsement of return.

Provided that no representation shall be rejected unless the complainant has been given an opportunity of being heard.

19.4 If the representation is considered to be in order, the Secretary shall obtain the orders of the Vidyut Ombudsman for admission of the same for hearing.

20. Issue and Service of Notices

20.1 The Vidyut Ombudsman shall fix a date for appearance of the respondent(s) and issue notices to both parties for appearance on that day and the notice to the respondent(s) shall be accompanied by a copy of the representation and copies of enclosed documents, if any.

20.2 The Vidyut Ombudsman may, on the request of the complainant, permit the complainant to effect service of such notice on the respondent by delivering or tendering to the respondent personally and the complainant shall provide proof of such personal service to the Vidyut Ombudsman.

20.3 The Vidyut Ombudsman may cause the service of such notices on both parties in the manner prescribed by Section 171 of the Act or through special messenger and obtaining signed acknowledgement or by fax or by e-mail.

20.4 Where the Vidyut Ombudsman is of the opinion that the adjudication of the representation is likely to have an impact on the rights and interests of other consumers or the Electricity Industry, he may direct the Licensees to place the representation along with the enclosed documents, if any, on the official websites of the Licensees, also intimating the date of hearing.

21. Procedure for hearing:

21.1 On appearance before the Vidyut Ombudsman, the Vidyut Ombudsman may proceed to give a reasonable opportunity to both parties to produce such further oral and documentary evidence they may desire to produce and hear and settle the representation on merits, on the pleadings and evidence available on record.

21.2 If the Vidyut Ombudsman considers it necessary for a satisfactory decision on the representation, he may direct either party to produce any documents or information in its possession or under its control or direct a personal inspection by the Vidyut Ombudsman or a competent person on the subject at the expense of either party as the Vidyut Ombudsman may direct and take into consideration such documents or information or report of such inspection:

Provided that if the information or documents are withheld by a party or such inspection is resisted or not assisted by a party, the Vidyut Ombudsman may draw an adverse inference against such party.

- 21.3 The Vidyut Ombudsman may, in appropriate cases, take recourse to conciliation or mediation or arbitration or any other method of alternative dispute resolution as he may deem fit and appropriate in the circumstances of the case before inquiring into the matter on merits.
- 21.4 The Vidyut Ombudsman may determine from stage to stage during the inquiry or in the final order, the manner in which and by whom the costs and expenses of the proceedings or any step therein have to be borne.
- 21.5 Subject to the specific provisions of this Regulation, the Vidyut Ombudsman shall be guided by the principles of justice, equity and good conscience and may regulate his own procedure accordingly.
- 21.6 When, on the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, if any party or his authorized agent or representative does not appear when the matter is called for hearing, the Vidyut Ombudsman may, in his discretion, either dismiss the representation for default when the complainant or the person authorized on his behalf is absent or proceed ex-parte to hear and settle the representation.

21.7 Where a representation is dismissed for default or decided ex-parte, the person aggrieved may file an application within thirty (30) days from the date of such dismissal or being proceeded ex-parte, as the case may be, for recall of the order passed, and the Vidyut Ombudsman may recall the order on such terms as he thinks fit, if he is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the non-appearance when the representation was called for hearing.

21.8 The complainant or the respondent(s) may appear before the Vidyut Ombudsman either in person or through any other person duly authorised by him including an Advocate.

22. Orders of the Vidyut Ombudsman

22.1 On conclusion of the inquiry, the Vidyut Ombudsman shall pass reasoned orders on the representation.

22.2 The Vidyut Ombudsman shall pass an order of dismissal of the representation, if the decision does not uphold the representation and he shall grant an appropriate relief(s) as per law, if the representation is upheld in full or in part and such relief(s) shall be specific and clear.

22.3 The orders of the Vidyut Ombudsman on any representation shall be passed ordinarily within sixty (60) days of the admission of the representation by him and he shall state the reasons for any pendency beyond such period in his quarterly report to the Commission.

22.4 The Vidyut Ombudsman may, at any time, since the admission of the representation till the final orders are passed, make such interlocutory orders or issue such interim directions pending final orders on the representation as he may consider necessary to prevent the ends of justice from being defeated:

Provided that except where it appears that the object of making such interlocutory orders or issuing such interim directions would be defeated by delay, no such interlocutory order shall be made or interim directions issued unless the opposite party has been given an opportunity of being heard.

22.5 The Vidyut Ombudsman shall sign on all original orders, decisions and proceedings and all the copies of such orders, decisions and proceedings issued or communicated by the Vidyut Ombudsman shall be certified under the signature of the Secretary.

22.6 All final orders or other executable orders of the Vidyut Ombudsman shall be communicated to the parties to the representation and the person responsible for executing or obeying such orders within three (3) days from the date of such orders.

22.7 Unless the Vidyut Ombudsman specifies in his orders the time within which the orders shall be executed or implemented, the Licensee shall comply with such orders within fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of the orders under intimation to the Vidyut Ombudsman and he may, at the request of the licensee, extend the time for such compliance upto a maximum period of one (1) month from the date of the order, for reasons to be recorded in writing.

22.8 Non-compliance with the orders of the Vidyut Ombudsman within the time granted or extended shall be deemed to be non-compliance with and contravention of this Regulation within the meaning of Sections 142 and 146 of the Act.

22.9 The Vidyut Ombudsman shall communicate to the Chairman and Managing Director of the Licensee about the non-compliance with the orders of the Vidyut Ombudsman within the time granted or extended and the Vidyut Ombudsman shall report such non-compliance to the Commission within 30 (thirty) days from the expiry of the period so granted or extended for execution or implementation of the orders.

22.10 On receipt of such report from the Vidyut Ombudsman, the Commission may take appropriate action, as the facts and circumstances of the case may require and justify for ensuring compliance with the orders of the Vidyut Ombudsman including action under Sections 142 and 146 of the Act.

CHAPTER 4

Consumer Assistance

23.1 The Secretary of the Commission shall be the officer in the Commission responsible for consumer affairs including consumer protection, consumer interest and consumer assistance assisted by Deputy Director (Consumer Assistance) and / or any other officer or employee of the Commission as may be directed by the Commission from time to time.

- 23.2 The Secretary of the Commission shall review the reports of the Vidyut Ombudsman and the Forums received in the Commission from time to time and obtain the orders of the Commission within ten (10) days from the receipt of such reports on the action to be taken for protection of consumer interest in general or in particular cases including issuance of any general or special instructions in accordance with law to the Vidyut Ombudsman or the Forums or the Licensees or others.
- 23.3 The Secretary of the Commission shall examine and obtain appropriate orders from the Commission on the action to be taken on any communication from any consumer regarding any grievance, within five (5) days from the receipt of such communication, for redressal of such grievance whether or not the consumer has taken recourse to the Complaint Handling Procedure relating to Distribution and Retail Supply adopted in pursuance of the distribution and retail supply licences by the Licensees or the remedies provided under this Regulation.
- 23.4 The Commission may direct the concerned officer of the Licensee to treat any such communication as a grievance or representation under the complaint handling procedure relating to the distribution and retail supply and redress the grievance specified therein and report to the Commission the action taken within the time to be specified by the Commission.
- 23.5 The Commission may direct the Forum or the Vidyut

Ombudsman, as the case may be, to treat any such communication as a complaint or a representation presented under this Regulation and pass orders on merits in accordance with the procedure prescribed in this Regulation and report to the Commission expeditiously.

23.6 Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Regulation, the Commission may, if it considers any such communication to be not within the scope of the complaint handling procedure or the jurisdiction of the Forum or the Vidyut Ombudsman but still falls within its functions under Section 86 read with Sections 57 and 88 (iv) of the Act or otherwise, pass appropriate orders or issue appropriate directions in accordance with Law for providing appropriate relief by the person responsible for such redressal and seek a report of compliance within such time as may be specified by the Commission.

23.7 Non-compliance with the orders or directions of the Commission under 23.4 to 23.6 above shall be deemed to be non-compliance with and contravention of this Regulation within the meaning of Sections 142 and 146 of the Act.

23.8 If no response or report in compliance of the orders or directions passed or issued under 23.4 to 23.6 above is received from the Officer responsible under the complaint handling procedure or the Forum or the Vidyut Ombudsman or the person responsible for such compliance, as the case may be, within the time specified by the Commission, the Commission may take appropriate action as the facts and circumstances of the case may require and justify for ensuring compliance of such orders or directions including action under Sections 142 and 146 of the Act.

- 23.9 The Commission may, if it considers just and necessary, direct the Secretary of the Commission to call for the remarks or report of the person concerned on the contents of any such communication before taking any action under 23.4 to 23.6 above and may also specify the time within which such remarks or report should be submitted to the Commission.
- 23.10 The Commission may, on examination and consideration of such remarks or report, drop any further action if it considers the same to be unnecessary and unwarranted or proceed to take appropriate action under this Regulation as may be considered just and necessary.
- 23.11 If the person responsible fails without any reasonable excuse or cause to submit his remarks or report as called for by the Secretary of the Commission under its orders, such default shall be deemed to be non-compliance with and contravention of this Regulation within the meaning of Sections 142 and 146 of the Act actionable under 23.8 above.
- 23.12 An Officer not below the rank of a Chief General Manager of a Licensee shall be designated by the Licensee as the Nodal Officer in respect of all matters relating to consumer affairs including consumer protection, consumer interest and consumer assistance.

23.13 Such Nodal Officer shall monitor due working of the complaint handling procedure, due representation of the Licensee before the Forum and the Vidyut Ombudsman in their proceedings, due response to all the communications from the Commission and due action for prompt redressal of any consumer grievances otherwise brought to his notice.

23.14 The Secretary of the Commission and the Nodal Officers of the Licensees shall act in coordination for spreading consumer awareness through consumer education, strengthening consumer organizations for protection of consumer interests and rights and making suggestions from time to time to the Commission and the Licensees for improvement of consumer grievance redressal mechanisms and betterment of standards of performance of the Electricity Industry as a whole.

CHAPTER 5

GENERAL

24.1 The Licensee shall ensure that the person against whom a complaint or representation, as the case may be, has been made in the Forum or the Vidyut Ombudsman, and in his absence, an Officer not below the rank of an Assistant Engineer shall appear before the Forum or the Vidyut Ombudsman on all dates of hearing for filing any pleadings or furnishing any documents or records or information or making any submissions on behalf of the Licensee.

24.2 The Superintending Engineer of the Licensee concerned shall ensure representation of the Licensee before the Forum or the Vidyut Ombudsman, as the case may be, on all dates of hearing as prescribed by 24.1 above and shall submit monthly reports to the Nodal Officer of the Licensee about the progress of redressal of consumer grievances within his jurisdiction.

CHAPTER 6

MISCELLANEOUS

25. Repeal

25.1 Save as otherwise provided in this Regulation, the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission (Establishment of Forum and Vidyut Ombudsman for redressal of grievances of the consumers) Regulation, 2004 (1 of 2004) and the A.P. Electricity Regulatory Commission (Appointment of Vidyut Ombudsman and Terms and Conditions of Service) Regulation, 2007 (2 of 2007) as amended from time to time are hereby repealed.

26. Savings

26.1 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation, the complaint handling procedure relating to distribution and retail supply adopted in pursuance of the distribution and retail supply licenses by the Licensees shall continue to be in force.

26.2 The provisions of this Regulation shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of any other law or rules or regulations for the time being in force.

27. Power to remove difficulties

27.1 If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of these Regulations, the Commission may, by general or special order, direct the Licensee, the Forum and the Vidyut Ombudsman to take suitable action not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Electricity Act, 2003, or any other Law for the time being in force which appears to the Commission to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing difficulties.

28. Power to Amend

28.1 The Commission may, at any time add, vary, alter, modify or amend any provisions of this Regulation.
