

Schedule of hearings before APERC as on 24-08-2020

NOTE:

1. Parties who want to file any papers concerning a case in an upcoming hearing should do so before 4 (four) clear working days; as otherwise it is not possible to put them through internal circulation and club them with the existing file that needs to be uploaded and made available to all at least a day prior to the scheduled date of hearing.
2. Where any filing is being made through email, such filings have to be only by way of pdf attachments to the email; but not as downloadable links that need to be acted upon at the Commission's end.
3. The case files and RoPs can be downloaded by clicking the respective links in the "Case No." or "RoP" column. Such download will work to only those with whom the files are shared. Stakeholders who are not getting access to the file shall have to raise a request to commn-secy@aperc.in or anjani@aperc.in for getting access duly showing their status in the case as one of -- Petitioner, Respondent, Objector, Intervenor etc. File sharing works only with gmail IDs.
4. The case files and RoPs are digitally signed by the Commission; they cannot be modified. They can be printed, if necessary. For the purpose of authenticity, it is the digitally signed version which is considered authentic, not its printed version.
