This Review Petition having come up for hearing today in the presence of Sri P. Shiva Rao, learned Standing Counsel for the petitioners and Sri Pulkit Agarwal, learned Counsel for the respondent and upon hearing both the Counsel, the Commission passed the following :

ORDER:

This Petition is filed to review the order dated 23-12-2020 in O.P.No.37 of 2020 for deleting the words “Deemed Distribution Licensee”.

In para-11 of the Review Petition itself, it is stated that in the counter filed by petitioner No.1, it has inadvertently admitted the status of the respondent-Indian Railways as a deemed distribution licensee. When the order was passed by the Commission based on the said admission, the application for review of the order is not maintainable as there cannot be said to be an error in the order passed by the Commission. Hence, the Review Petition is dismissed. This order however will not preclude the Review Petitioners from contesting the claim of the respondent’s status as a deemed distribution licensee if and when such issue arises.
